6. [] Senator Leverett Saltonstall called apparently after he was unable to reach the Director. He mentioned the earlier conversation he had had with the Director. He stated he had discussed this with Senator Russell who indicated he believed the bill needed tightening in several respects. Senator Saltonstall's recommendation to me was that we get together immediately with Braswell on these items. These were discussed with Braswell later in the day and a further meeting was established for tomorrow morning to include Mr. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Helms, Mr. Echols, and Mr. Warner.

8. [redacted] Met with Mr. William Gullledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that the Committee would be meeting on Tuesday. He indicated also that two other amendments are under consideration for inclusion. One would amend sections 303 (f) and (g) of the Act to provide for NSA and the United States Attorney's Office. The other would amend section 308 to include the Panama Canal Company. Mr. E. David Minton, Legal Assistant on the staff, will be working on these amendments and I plan to meet with him on Friday.

50X1

9. [redacted] Met with Mr. Carl Vinson, Chairman, House Armed Services Committee, who advised that the Committee had nine bills on the Whip notice for consideration by the House of Representatives during the coming week so that it would not be possible to come out for lunch this week. I am to check with him late in the week to attempt to schedule another date for the luncheon.

50X1

10. [redacted] Met with Mr. Ed Braswell, Professional Staff Member, Senate Armed Services Committee, and rescheduled the meeting with him for Messrs. Warner, Kirkpatrick, Helms, Echols and [redacted] for 9:30 Friday morning. We also reviewed briefly the possible changes under consideration to bring the bill more in line with Senator Russell's desires. In this context, Mr. Braswell indicated that if additional amendments should be considered to align the bill more closely with certain Civil Service features, that such matters should be considered at this time.
